Later from Europe.

The telegraph brings us some later intelligence from Europe, brought by the Kangaroo to New York, yesterday. The main features of the news are, lower prices for breadstuffs, an easier money market, political quiet on the continent, and the probable postponement, till next spring, of the attempt to lay down the Atlantic telegraph cable. Some failures had occurred in England, but business generally was in a sound condition.

Board of Trade.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Trade is to be held at their rooms in the basement of the Newhall House at 9 o'clock this, Tuesday, morning, to hear and act upon the report of the Committee, appointed on Friday last, upon the subject of the business connections of Milwaukee with the Detroit & Milwaukee R. R. and the Canadian system of Railways. It is especially desired that there should be a general and general attendance of Members.

German Democratic Meeting.

There was a very large meeting of German Democrats at the saloon of Mr. RANTZ, in the Second Ward, on Saturday evening last, to hear the report of the German Delegates to the late Democratic State Convention. After the organization of the meeting, by the appointment of Mr. HILMANTEL, as President, and Mr. GOSER, as Secretary, Alderman COTZHAUSEN made a speech, commenting the wrongs practised at the Ward caucuses by the friends of Mr. J. B. GROSS, and showing that only one-fourth of the democratic voters in this County were in favor of Gross' nomination. Mr. COTZHAUSEN remarked that no democrat had been ever elected Governor of Wisconsin when his own County was opposed to his nomination. Mr. SCHROEDER, of Waupun, an old "war-horse," in the Democratic party, next addressed the meeting. He dwelt at length and with great severity upon the many swindles of "the forty" and the mal-administration of EX-Governor BARSTOW. A preamble and resolutions were then reported by a Committee, setting forth that the late Democratic State Convention was, in part, composed of men elected by corrupt means; that it had nominated a candidate for Governor in opposition to the wishes of three-fourths of the Democratic voters of Milwaukee; that the ticket had been filled with other names against the views of the different elements composing the Democratic party of the State; that, therefore, they would not be bound by the nominations of the Democratic State Convention; that a committee of fifteen be appointed to carry out the views of the meeting, and report at a future day. These resolutions were then put to the meeting and adopted.

Mr. Postmaster SHARPSTEIN, Mr. Collector SCHOEPFLER, Mr. Commissioner MCGARRY, and other officials were on hand and kindly undertook to direct the action of the meeting. But the people politely declined their assistance and took matters into their own hands. The meeting was large and spirited, and showed a degree of dissatisfaction with the proceedings and nominations of the State Convention which argues ill for the fortunes of the Barstow ticket.

MINNESOTA ELECTION.—On the 13th day of next October will be held an election under the new Constitution, to choose a Governor, Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, State Auditor, State Treasurer, Attorney General, three members of Congress, three Judges of the Supreme Court, and a Clerk of the Supreme Court.

IOWA CONSTITUTION ADOPTED.—The official vote upon the Constitution of Iowa is thus reported: Yeas, 40,311; Noes, 38,681; majority in favor of the new Constitution, 1630.

The Republican Nominations—How they are Received.

From the Whitewater Register.

The names of the candidates are at the head of our columns. They speak for themselves. They are those of good and true men. The ticket is as good a one as was ever presented to the people of Wisconsin for their support. It will be triumphantly elected. Old Walworth is good for 1500 majority for it, and if the rest of the State will do as well, we shall put Alexander W. Randall and his associates in power, this fall, by such a majority as will strike terror to the hearts of the Pro-Slavery Shinneerary.

From the Oshkosh Democrat.

So far as we have seen or heard, there is but one expression, that of unmixed satisfaction, at the action of the convention thus far. To be sure our first preference, and those of most, if not all, in this section, were for Gov. Bashford, yet we will cheerfully yield to the expression of the will of the majority when, as now, they give us a first rate and unexceptionable man in his place.

The name of Judge Randall will bring great strength to our ticket. He left the democracy when their corruption and prostration at the feet of slavery became manifest, and has since been a terrible thorn in the flesh to the Barstow democracy. His nomination will, perhaps, more than that of any other man, be a fair, bold challenge to the Barstow corruption party who now hold the democracy under their thumbs.

From the Panama Herald, Aug. 19.

Death of Dr. Francis, the Naturalist.

Our readers will remember that some months ago Dr. Francis and Prof. Moore, of Iowa, passed through this city on their way to Ecuador, where they intended exploring the Cordilleras and tributaries of the Amazon. We learn with regret that whilst descending the River Napo, Dr. Francis was accidently shot by Professor Moore, whilst cleaning his fowling piece. The shot took effect on Dr. Francis right arm and breast, and he lingered for some time; but a few days before the sailing of the last steamer, news arrived at Guayaquil of his death. Prof. Moore intends decending the Amazon, and returning home by way of Brazil, as it was less difficult than ascending the Napo again.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, signing himself Geo. Edwards, states that Prof. Francis was shot in a duel by Professor Moore, the former having challenged the latter for some reflections upon his scientific reputation.

From the Rochester Democrat.

The Poisoning Case in Rochester.

There is no abatement of the excitement in regard to the terrible charge brought against this gentleman, but rather an increase. Rumors of all sorts fly thick and fast, and the gossipers and lovers of scandal are enjoying one of those feasts which were once so rare, but alas, are now quite too common. Months ago, insinuations were thrown out, on the authority of Dr. Biegler, now in the Auburn prison, of the complicity of a prominent citizen in the affair of the unfortunate girl Emelie Munz, and the suggestion was made that the charge should be made upon Mr. Robertson. Probably all who heard the rumor believed it unfounded, and it was passed by without attention. The recent arrest of Mr. R. revived this calumny, it such it be, and brought out others which will find wing fast enough without the aid of the press. It is but just to Mr. Robertson to say, that a large and respectable portion of the community believe him entirely innocent, and the whole affair the result of a conspiracy, prompted by motives yet to be revealed. The name of the elder Dr. Biegler is in some degree connected with the affair, although it is charged that the negotiations for the administration of poison were made with the son.

It is understood that the prosecution feel entirely confident that the evidence in the case is abundantly strong, and that under the present state of things a conviction will be the result. It is said witnesses have been stationed so as to hear and see what took place between Mr. Robertson and young Dr. Biegler, and that they will fully confirm the charge. One of these witnesses is Mr. Ortert, the Chief of Police. The others are not known to us. We express no opinion as to the truth of all this, but incline to be skeptical until something more tangible is spread before the public. The charge is an awful one, and Mr. Robertson's previous high standing in the community ought to protect him from an unfavorable bias until proof of his guilt is adduced.

Mr. Robertson's course in reference to the painful matter has been discreet. He went to police office, unaccompanied by counsel, and proposes to go himself and acquaint his wife of the complaint and arrest. It was, as a matter of course, received by her with surprise, and with entire disbelief in the truth of the accusation. All of Mr. Robertson's relatives and friends regard it in the same light.

It is proper to say that the Dr. Biegler in the case is the young man who has succeeded to the practice of his father.

Failure of the Oliver Lee & Co. Bank.

The feeling of doubt as to the soundness of the Oliver Lee & Co Bank, which has prevailed in financial circles since the run of Monday, is now confirmed by the suspension of the bank. The question of continuance or failure was known to depend, not on the ability of the bank itself, but on the support of large capitalists at the East, whose apparent interest it was to maintain it. These have withdrawn their support: whether from inability or unwillingness to continue it is unknown as yet; and the failure is the result.

The condition of the assets of the bank, so far as bill-holders are concerned, is satisfactory. It has received in bills from the Comptroller, $104,220. To secure this the Comptroller holds:

|---|---|
| New York State Stocks | $87,000 |
| First Class Mortgages | 19,000 |
| Total | $106,000 |

The bills are of course entirely reliable, and are received at par to-day by the Savings and other banks of the city.

The chance of depositors is not so cheerful, though the number and amount of deposits has been rapidly decreasing during the past few days. Among the assets of the bank are $264,000 of the Buffalo the Company's paper. It has been understood for some time past that the life of the Oliver Lee Bank was uncertain, and other institutions had ample time to protect themselves. There is no run upon any of them.

Paper maturing at the Oliver Lee & Co. Bank to-day is transferred to the Attica Bank, where those having acceptances to meet have had the opportunity of paying.—Buff. Commercial, 4th.

Mr. Lyell to Resume Business.

We take inexpressible satisfaction in presenting the subjoined letter from Mr. James Lyell to his cashier, Col. Anderson, accepting the proposition made to his creditors in a card published in this paper on the 29th ult. It will be seen that Mr. Lyell fully confirms our statement in relation to the drafts drawn on and after the 24th. It will be a matter of general and profound congratulation, that Mr. Lyell will soon be in our midst to resume a business he has conducted for twenty years with so much credit to himself and advantage to the business public, and we sincerely hope that his creditors will enter cordially into the proposition.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3, 1857.

"COL. E. A. ANDERSON.—Dear Sir,—I have about completed all that I can arrange here. In the meantime, of course, the panic in all monetary affairs is so terrible that I have not done all I could have wished. I am overwhelmed with astonishment that it would for a moment be doubted that I had provided for the drafts drawn after the 24th ult. It was my first care, and all who have a just claim on this ground are provided for. If I am happy to say that I will be able to carry out the proposition made by you in the published card of the 29th ult., if its terms are complied with,—in which case I shall be in Detroit next week, when I shall be prepared to fulfill these arrangements, and I trust go on with my business as usual.

JAMES L. LYELL."

Great Bank Robbery.

The Toronto (C W.) Leader relates the following, but gives no names:

"It has come to our knowledge that, some four months ago, a bank robbery to the amount of $100,000, in notes and gold, was committed in one of the sister provinces. The directors thought it the most prudent course to keep the matter quiet. They therefore, sent to Buffalo for a detective officer, who went quietly to work and ultimately succeeded in tracing the crime to some of the criminals engaged in the act.—By this process, nearly the whole of the money has, we understand, been recovered; and will when demanded, be paid over to the owners.—We are not at liberty to give details at present; but we must say that the officer who performed this service for the bank deserves the highest credit."

THE WHEAT CROP, &c.—We conversed with a gentleman a few days since, who has travelled over a large portion of this section of the State within a short time. He gives a very different account of the wheat crop from what we had anticipated. He thinks that it will fall far short of what the farmers have calculated upon. In many places it has been injured much by the "rust," in others it has "grown" badly since being stacked, and in all cases where he has examined it, he has found it much shrunken. It is hoped, however, that the large amount sown may make up the deficiency somewhat.

Of barley he thinks that there is about ten times as much raised in this State this year as there was last. Corn is looking well and bids fair for an excellent crop.—Marquette Express.

THE NEW CROP OF WHEAT.—Though the new crop of wheat is most abundant, yet in the aggregate, it will fall far short in point of quality of last year's crop. At the same season there was much wet weather, and consequently about two-thirds of the wheat, both winter and spring, is smutty. Some of our farmers have the cleanest and finest wheat ever produced, but a majority is more or less affected with smut. All those who soaked their seed in vitriol water and sowed when the ground was dry on the surface, have escaped smut, while those who sowed without care on these points, find their crops depreciated by that dark appendage.—Neenah Conservator.

FEMALE PREACHER IN IRELAND.—In Ireland they are having a sensation over a young and extraordinary female preacher. She is drawing crowds of all sects to listen to her eloquence.—Her hair, eyebrows and eyelashes are almost white, her face pale, and she is only twenty-two years of age. She has many invitations to preach from all parts of the country, and even from Scotland. She accepts no earthly fee or reward, and says she is prompted to speak in obedience to answer to her prayer a twelve-month since.

A GOOD BINDER, who understands Forwarding and Finishing, can obtain steady employment at good wages, by applying at the Sentinel Bindery soon.

Milwaukee, August 29, '57.

TAKE HEED.—Dr. TILTON has returned to the Massasoit House, Chicago, where may be obtained Old Dr. James' wonderful and celebrated extract of Cannibis Indica.—His son-in-law, Dr. Thomas Tilton, will supply you with either, personally or by Express. It is a sure and speedy cure of the worst cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, nervous debility, coughs, colds and sore throats.—We know this to be a fact. Try it and live.

P.S.—By addressing Dr. Tilton a note through the Chicago Post Office, inclosing four stamps, (12 cents), a recipe will be sent in return, free of charge, to any part of the Union. DR. TILTON,

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 7.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Dennis Ryan, brought up for drunkenness.—City Attorney.—"Was you drunk, sir?" Ryan.—"Well, I took a little diirop your honor, but the devil a word I said to nobody." Ryan had to pay a dollar for the "little diirop."

Timothy O'Brien, (not the Alderman), charged with being disorderly, case continued till this morning.

Patrick Mason was drunk and disorderly, and kicked the officer and made a great deal of noise when arrested, for which he is to be boarded at the expense of the city for ten days, not having paid his fine.

Edward Skahan and John Maher, drunk, and the natural consequence, inclined to fight with everybody, and in their fury pitched into a policeman unknowingly, and would probably have thrashed him had not another been close by.—A hard scrimmage ensued, in which the clothes of all parties suffered materially. The disorderly gents were cent up for twenty days in default of their fines.

Patrick Judd, (a small giant), was arrested near the depot of the M. & M. R. R. for throwing stones at a carriage, and being noisy and disorderly. He was drunk, as a matter of course, and the police had a hard time arresting him. In bringing him up Wisconsin street, they met three colored men, when Judd suddenly attacked them and knocked one of them down before the officers could get hold of him. He was fined $5.

Mathew Feley, William Dolton and Simon Currie, drunk and fighting on board the steamer Arctic. The Captain had them put off the boat, when they continued their fight on the dock, until the police came along and stopped their fun by taking them all to the Station House. They were fined $5 each.

Nicholas Cornish, drunk and disorderly, fined $5.

Robert Singsing, drunk and disorderly, fined $5.

An impudent rascal, named Andrew Wilson, met a young man and a lady coming from Bichfield's Garden on Sunday afternoon, took hold of the lady's arm and made use of insulting and indecent language to the young man. The lady jerked herself away from him, and the young man cautioned him not to come near them again. The latter two then went on, and had not proceeded far when the fellow followed them and attacked the young man. They had a hard ussel but Wilson got the worst of it, when a policeman came to the assistance of the other, and they took the fellow to the Watch House. He was fined $20, and not paying it, was sent to jail in default, for forty days.

Michael Quinn and James Leonard, drunk, fined $5 each.

John Brown and William Johnson, both drunk, fined $1 each.

Henry Wanes, drunk and suffering from delirium tremens, fined $2.

Thus it will be seen the new Police Court was inaugurated by doing a very fair morning's business.

FEARFUL ACCIDENT!

Five or Six Men Drowned—About Forty Thrown into the River!!

Last evening between six and seven o'clock, a flat-bottomed boat, containing some forty or more men, was capsized on the river near Jones' ship yard, and a number of the men drowned.—We could not then learn the exact number, but it was reported that four or five perished.—The boat was used as a ferry between the ship-yard, which is upon an Island, and the shore, and the men were in the habit of crossing upon it every morning to their work, and going back in the evening to their homes. Last evening the steamer Arctic came up the river as they were crossing, and made a large swell, which capsized the boat in the middle of the river.

The men were all ship carpenters and others connected with the ship yard, and were in the employment of Captain Jones. Most of them resided in the Fifth Ward. When we heard of the accident it was quite late last night, and we were unable to ascertain the names of those drowned. To-morrow we will publish all the particulars of the accident.

THE STEAM FERRY.—THE STRAIGHT CUT.—The N. Y. Times of the 4th instant, contains the following paragraph:

J. R. and A. Stears have contracted with Captain Howard, the Superintendent of the railroads, to construct two steamers, to run between Milwaukee and Michigan City. They are to be about 2,000 tons each, the cylinders to be 90 inches in diameter.

This is doubtless a mistake, or else refers to steamers for the Milwaukee and Grand Haven Ferry. But it gives occasion for the following spiteful paragraph in the Chicago Dem. Press, of yesterday:

A few days since a small propeller of about 300 tons attempted to go through a channel at Milwaukee and stuck. There will be some digging there before these 2000 ton steamers enter. To run between "Milwaukee and Michigan City!"

Don't take on so, neighbor. When the "Straight Cut" is completed and ready for use, which it will be by November, not only "small," but large propellers, and any craf drawing up to 12 feet water, will be able to get in and out of Milwaukee Harbor, easily and safely. As it is, the old Government Harbor, affords a much safer and better entrance for all classes of vessels, than the crooked, ever-varying and dangerous channel at Chicago.

SETTING UP MILWAUKEE.—The editor of the Mt. Clemens Advocate, who was present at the festival on the opening of the Newhall House, thus speaks of our city:

"This city, though neither the largest nor the fastest town in the West, is decidedly the best, the soundest, the most desirable place for a residence, and we were able to notice more evidences of solid advancement and permanent prosperity within its borders than in any other city between here and there. It certainly can boast the finest hotel, the most elegant and substantial banking houses, and private residences, one of the most imposing government buildings (now in process of erection,) and the healthiest and handsomest location of any western city: in addition, it can boast the most liberal, hospitable and warm hearted inhabitants, so far as our acquaintance extends of any town, city, or corporation under the sun."

DANIEL NEWMAN.—The following notice, which we clip from the Lockport (N. Y.) Journal, informing us of the recovery of our esteemed fellow citizen DANIEL NEWMAN, gives us unspeakable pleasure, as it will no doubt all of our readers who are acquainted with that gentleman:

Mr. Daniel Newman, owner of the magnificent hotel just finished at Milwaukee, is now on a visit to his father, in this town. We are gratified to learn that he is recovering from the indisposition which obliged him to forego a participation in the festivities, on the occasion of the opening of the above hotel, which came off on the 25th ult.

FINE WEATHER.—Yesterday was a glorious sample of Wisconsin Autumn weather, the bright sunshine and healthful, invigorating air, making people almost forget that times were hard and money scarce. Two weeks more of fine weather will bring the farmers out all right.

LAFAYETTE'S BIRTHDAY.—A salute of one hundred guns was fired at noon yesterday by the Artillery Squad of Company "A," Light Guard Battalion, in honor of LAFAYETTE'S birthday.

Common Council Proceedings—Special Meeting Sept. 5, 1857.

BY A. CROFF, PRESIDENT.

Accounts were presented and referred to committees.

A petition to have the streets in the Eighth Ward widened, was referred to the committee of that Ward.

The returns of the Chief of Police for the month of August were laid before the Board, and ordered to be placed on file.

A petition from property owners of the Fifth Ward, requesting the Common Council to take measures to prevent the Milwaukee & Beloit R. R. Co. from laying a temporary track on Mineral street, was laid upon the table.

An appeal from Martin B. Medbury and others, in relation to an Alley which had been laid out in the First Ward, was referred to the City Attorney.

The committee on plats reported in favor of approving of Medbury & Keans addition in Ninth Ward—concurred in.

The committee on schools, to whom was referred the matter of selecting plans for the public school houses in the 5th, 8th and 9th Wards, reported in favor of accepting that of E. Townsend Mix, which was concurred in.

A resolution was adopted that the committee be instructed to invite proposals for the construction of school houses in the above Wards.

A resolution was also adopted that E. Townsend Mix, be appointed to superintend the construction of the school houses in the 5th, 8th and 9th Wards.

The committee to whom was referred the petition of the Milwaukee & Beloit R. R., asking permission of the Common Council to lay a temporary track on Mineral street in the 8th Ward, to convey railroad iron, and other materials out upon the track, which is now nearly graded to Delavan, reported adverse to granting the request of the petitioners, stating that some of the property owners on that street were opposed to having the track laid upon. The minority of that committee, however, Alderman REED, from the 8th Ward, reported in favor of granting the petition, stating that a large majority of the property owners and residents in that Ward were strongly in favor of having the track laid upon that street, and that all those who were opposed to it, or most of them, had told him personally that they had no objections to having the track laid, if they could be sure that the Company would take it up again. A stipulation from the Company was here presented by Alderman Reed, agreeing to have track removed from the street by the 1st day of January next. Alderman Taylor, Hadley, Plankinton Mallary, Reed, and others, made long and able speeches in favor of granting the petition, showing the great benefit which our city was to reap from the speedy completion of this road, the 8th Ward in particular; but all their eloquence was of no avail, for the killing of the ordinance granting this petition seems to have been a foregone conclusion. The Aldermen on the other side of the question, save Alderman Seaman, who harped upon one string, and that was the opposition of some "tax payers"—were perfectly silent and voted against the ordinance when it was called up, without giving a single reason for doing so. The ordinance was therefore lost by two votes. Several members of the Board were absent who had previously voted in favor of granting this petition, who no doubt would have voted for this ordinance had they been present.) We may allude to this matter again.

The report of the tax committee, to whom was referred the assessment roll, was read and concurred in.

The committee on schools offered a resolution that J. A. Seger be instructed to take the census of the city, when taking the school census, which was adopted.

A resolution was adopted that the Judiciary committee be instructed to do something in relation to "station house jail," which we did not understand, owing to the imperfect manner in which it was made.

An ordinance was passed establishing the grade of Doty street in the 1st Ward.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the committee on Fire Department to make a contract for the purchase of the lot for Engine Co. No. 1, which they recommended in their report of August 5th.

Other business of an unimportant nature was transacted, and the Board adjourned.

Another special meeting is called for this evening. Matters of importance will be brought before the Board.

DELIRIUM TREMENS.—On Sunday afternoon the police found an unfortunate man on Huron street, laboring under an attack of that horrible disease intemperance invariably produces—the delirium tremens. He was calling most pitifully help, and when a crowd, attracted by his wild talk and unnatural appearance, collected around him, his imagination transformed them into wild and ferocious beasts, about to tear him to pieces, and then again they were his enemies—shooting, stabbing and beating him—and he plead pitifully for mercy, but no mercy would his tormentors show him, and then he would cry aloud for help. The police took him to the station house and there all night he suffered under the same melancholy delusion. Now being attacked by snakes, and frightful reptiles, and then waylaid by robbers and murderers. He was brought into the Police Court yesterday morning, and was still in an insane state. Justice Walworth directed the officers to take him to jail without trial, to be cared for.

SABBATH SCHOOL EXCURSION.—The teachers and scholars of the Old School Presbyterian Church Sabbath School, go on a picnic excursion to Waukesha-to-day. They will leave this city this morning on the eight o'clock train on the M. & M. R. R. They will have their picnic on the College grounds, and they will no doubt have a merry time of it.

BOY DROWNED.—On Sunday afternoon a lad about six years of age, son of a German carpenter, fell into the river near the Chesnut street bridge, from a pile of rail road iron, and was drowned. He was sent to fall in by an old lady, who states that she did not see him rise afterward. Yesterday afternoon the body was found.

ARTIFICIAL EYES.—Dr. G. A. Knapp, oculist, of Buffalo, will be at the Walker House, Milwaukee, Sept. 14th and 15th, (two days) and insert Artificial eyes. He has a quantity, adapted to both sexes, and different ages, which he inserts without pain, and which will move in harmony with the natural eye.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.—One of the Milwaukee's carrier boys fell from a yawl boat into the river near Huron street bridge, yesterday, and was very nearly drowned, when a sailor rescued him.

I have recommended the article to many of my friends, and four or five of the number say it cured them. ### The Republican Ticket and Platform.

The Republican Convention which met at Madison last week was not only the largest Delegate Convention that ever assembled in our State, but remarkable also for the character and talent of its members, and the spirit which pervaded and controlled all its deliberations. Among two hundred delegates gathered together from all quarters of our State and many of them meeting for the first time, more or less diversity of opinion as to candidates was naturally to be expected. But it was apparent from the start that the determination of the great mass of intelligent and independent men who composed the Convention was not to insist upon any particular candidates, but to select those who, faithfully reflecting the Republican sentiment of the State, seemed best calculated to unite and call out the Republican strength. That such was the result none can doubt. The ticket nominated is confessedly the best one, as a whole, ever yet presented for the suffrages of the people of Wisconsin. As such it is received by the Republican press and the Republican party, not only with entire unanimity, but with lively satisfaction, while large numbers of the Democrats, especially among those not wedded to the fortunes of "Barstow and the balance," admit the claims and qualifications of our candidates, and openly avow their intention to support them.

Our Platform, too, is as good as our ticket. It reaffirms the principles upon which the original organization of our party was based; renews the pledges of opposition to the extension of slavery, to the Fugitive Slave Act, and to the admission of any more slave States into the Union; denounces all proscription on account of birth, creed, or color; declares for equal rights to all citizens of the Republic, native, or foreign-born; takes high and unpregnable grounds against the Dred Scott decision, and on that issue appeals from the dicta of partizan Judges to the great tribunal of THE PEOPLE. We stand, therefore, in this canvass as the advocates of FREE SOIL and FREE LABOR, of EQUAL RIGHTS and CIVIL and RELIGIOUS LIBERTY, of STATE SOVEREIGNTY and the true interpretation of the Federal Constitution; and as the opponents of slavery aggression and slavery extension, of political proscription, and of judicial misconstructions of the great charter, ordained and established by the fathers and founders of our Republic "to form a more perfect "Union, establish justice, insure domestic tran"quility, provide for the common defence, pro"mote the general welfare and secure the bles"sings of LIBERTY to ourselves and our pos"terity."

That success will crown the efforts of the Republicans, at the ensuing election in this State, does not, we think, admit of the slightest doubt. But let us not, therefore, rest upon our arms, or intermit our efforts. Let us rather make "assurance doubly sure," and swell, if we can, the commanding majorities by which WISCONSIN, at the last two elections, has proved her fidelity to the good cause. Let our Republican friends everywhere organize early and efficiently for the November contest. Let them make immediate provision for circulating papers and documents among those neighborhoods especially where light is still needed.—This duty becomes the more important in view of the persistent efforts now making to convert the entire corps of Federal office-holders, Postmasters included, throughout the State, into a band of active electioneerers, paid out of the People's Treasury, but warring against the people's rights and interests. Let good speakers traverse the State and talk to the electors. Let our nominations for Senators and Assemblymen be made in good season, and of the right stamp. Let the candidates then selected, be especially charged with the duty of perfecting the organization in their respective districts. Above all, let timely measures be adopted to call out a FULL VOTE, for in that, after all, lies the chief security and certainty of success. Up, then, REPUBLICANS of Wisconsin, and to the work!

Judge Randall and the Milwaukee Bar.

It is well known to many of our readers that when Judge RANDALL was appointed by Gov. BASHFORD to fill a vacancy on the Bench of this Circuit, the Bar of Milwaukee, having very generally recommended another gentleman for the office, felt somewhat disappointed at the Governor's selection. Judge RANDALL, therefore, in entering upon the duties of his new office, had to encounter this feeling and to work up, as it were, against the prejudices naturally arising from it. That he did this most effectually, and not only acquitted himself, ably and faithfully of his trust, but won the cordial respect and general confidence of the Bar, as well as the approving judgment of the public, is matter of record. Upon the expiration of his term of office, at a numerous meeting of the Milwaukee Bar, after brief and complimentary speeches from Messrs. RYAN and JAMES S. BROWN, both political opponents, a Committee, consisting of Messrs. RYAN, D. A. J. UPHAM and WINFIELD SMITH, reported to the meeting the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That although Judge Randall did not come upon the bench as the first choice of this Bar, yet during the brief time he has filled the office of Judge of this Circuit he has won the high respect of our body for the eminent ability, courtesy and impartiality with which he has presided in this court.

Resolved, That Judge Randall in again resuming his place amongst the Bar of our Circuit, takes with him our warmest good wishes for his success and welfare, that we shall not forget in the practising lawyer, the upright Judge before whom we have practiced during the last several months.

Those who were present at the meeting will hear us out in the statement that at this was no mere matter of form, but a hearty and genuine expression, on the part of the Bar. We recall it now as evidence that Judge RANDALL has other qualifications—ability, integrity and independence—for the responsible office of Governor, besides the "sole merit," ascribed to him by the News, of being "an enemy of Gov. BARSTOW."

BLIND OF ONE EYE.—The News affects to think it exceedingly "ominous" that the Wisconsin, professedly an independent paper, does not run up the Republican ticket; but it does not discover any "omens" at all in the chilling silence of the American, or the out spoken protests of the Madison Patriot and Waukesha Democrat—all three Democratic papers—or in the wide-spread and increasing disaffection among the German Democracy of Milwaukee and the adjoining counties.

The President's Defence of Border Ruffianism.

A brief despatch, some time since, stated that President Buchanan had been addressed by Prof. Silliman and many others, mostly clergymen, residing in Connecticut, asking that Gov. Walker should not be allowed to use the U. S. troops in Kansas to force the people of that territory "to obey laws not their own nor of the United States, but laws which it is notorious and established upon evidence they never made, and rulers they never elected."

The memorialists further said:

We represent, therefore, that by the foregoing your Excellency is openly held up and proclaimed, to the great derogation of our national character, as violating in its most essential particular the solemn oath which the President has taken to support the Constitution of this Union. We call attention, further, to the fact that your Excellency is in like manner held up to this nation, to all mankind, and to all posterity, in the attitude of "levying war against a portion of the United States," by employing arms in Kansas to uphold a body of men and a code of enactments purporting to be legislative, but which never had the election, nor sanction, nor consent of the people of the Territory. We earnestly represent to your Excellency that we also have taken the oath to obey the Constitution, and your Excellency may rest assured that we shall not refrain from the prayer that Almighty God will make your Administration an example of justice and beneficence, and with his terrible majesty protect our people and our Constitution.

It was announced at the time by sundry leading Democratic presses that the President's answer would soon be published; and we were given to understand that the memorialists would be terribly rebuked for their impudence in venturing to address that high Democratic functionary. The letter has been published, and we find nothing of greater moment than further evidence, as it any was needed, of the entire subserviency of Mr. Buchanan to the designs upon Kansas avowed by the Slavery Propagandists.

The President gives what he either believes, or wishes to be held as believing, to be a true history of affairs in Kansas, as an apology for his course. His answer, in this respect, is in substance as follows:

The Territory had been organized, officers appointed, a code of laws enacted by the Legislature and the Judiciary were expounding those laws and carrying them into effect, when Mr. Buchanan commenced his administration. There had been a controversy as to the validity of the election, but Congress had recognized the Territorial Legislature. Hence the President deemed it to be his duty to sustain those laws, and "for this purpose" he "ordered a military force to Kansas, to act as a posse comitatus in aiding the civil magistrate to carry the laws into execution." Mr. Buchanan wants to know whether he ought "to have abandoned the Territorial Government, sanctioned as it had been by Congress, to illegal violence, and thus renew the scenes of civil war and bloodshed which every patriot in the country had deplored?"

The President then proceeds to throw upon the Free State men the whole blame of the disorders and unhappy state of things in Kansas, their crime being, that "unwilling to trust to the ballot box, the certain American remedy for redress of all grievances, they undertook to create an independent government for themselves."

He proceeds to discuss the slavery question on the Southern side, arriving at the conclusion that "SLAVERY EXISTS IN KANSAS under the Constitution of the U. S." Thence he arrives at the act of the Territorial Legislature, providing for electing delegates to a Convention to form a State Constitution, and he alleges that that law was "fair and just in its provisions," conferring "the right of suffrage upon every bona fide inhabitant of the Territory, and for the purpose of preventing fraud and the intrusion of citizens of near or distant States, most properly confided this right to those who had resided therein three months previous to the election." And, says this voracious apologist for the Border Ruffians,—" Here a fair opportunity was presented for all qualified resident citizens of the Territory, to whatever organizati n they might have previously belonged, to participate in the election, and to express their opinions at the ballot box on the question of slavery; but numbers of lawless men still continued to resist the Territorial Government. They refused either to recognize or vote, and members of the Convention were elected legally and properly without their intervention."

Such is the representation of facts made by the President, as his apology for employing the troops in Kansas. That some of his statements are not facts, is plain to every one who knows the history of things in that territory; while, in regard to his other statements, the suppression of truths bearing upon the subject is equivalent to down right falsification of history. The President either knows better, or he does not; in either case there is abundant reason for his confession, in the concluding paragraph of his reply, of his unfitness for the office which he holds.

His whole letter is a calm, cold-blooded defence of the Border Ruffian rule in Kansas, and there is no word or thought of sympathy with those who have been wronged by the invaders, and by the legislation of the latter, cheated out of their dearest rights as freemen.

These "laws" which the President sent the troops to enforce, for he confesses to it, are the enactments of that body of scoundrels chosen by the ruffian invaders of the Territory! The ballot-box, that "certain remedy for grievances," had been tried over again, but through the fraud and violence of the men whom the President upholds, it had failed! That "fair and just" suffrage law provided that no man could vote unless his name was registered, and the Border Ruffian officers refused to register the Free State men!

But we have said enough. The President's letter is satisfactory in one respect, as being conclusive as to his entire committal to the designs of those who wish to force Slavery upon Kansas. If, as the President says, "slavery now exists in Kansas," it becomes necessary to drive out the curse at the earliest possible day.

His sole merit consists in being an enemy to Gov. BARSTOW.

When you have stated that Randall hates Gov. Barstow, his case is summed up.—News.

It is certainly a great merit in Judge RANDALL that he was and is, the opponent of ex-Gov. BARSTOW'S principles and policy. But this is by no means his sole merit, though it seems to be, in the eyes of the News, a chief source of complaint. As for "hating" Gov. BARSTOW, or being his "enemy," no one who knows Judge RANDALL need be told that the News draws upon its imagination for its facts. The nature of JUDGE RANDALL is altogether too frank, manly and genial, to "hate" anybody. If there is any "hate" between the parties it is on the News' side of the House.

SHOWING THE CLOVEN HOOF.—The instinctive K. N. proclivities of the Madison Argus, chief organ of the Barstow faction in this State, are sufficiently shown in the following paragraph from that paper of Saturday, objecting to the Republican nominee for Governor:

Mr. SCHURZ, we understand, is a young man of no knowledge or experience in public affairs, and is not yet a citizen of the United States.

Mr. SCHURZ is a citizen and elector of Wisconsin, a gentleman of fine talents, thorough education and ripe experience. He distinguished himself "in public affairs" in his native country, and is abundantly qualified to fill with credit and usefulness the office for which the Republicans have nominated him.

CONGRESSIONAL PRINTING.—There is likely to be a lively struggle at Washington for the public printing, and its incidental plunder. The editor of the Union hopes to be elected Printer to one or both branches of Congress; but Major Heiss, of the States, aided by a powerful combination of Democratic printers, are maturing a well laid plan for dividing the business and the profits among themselves.

Mr. Habich's Connection with the State Treasury.

We have received the following note from a gentleman at Madison, who has had abundant opportunity for knowing the facts to which he refers:

MADISON, Sept. 8d, 1857.

EDITORS SENTINEL, GENTS:—The Argus and Democrat of last night, in commenting upon your remarks concerning Mr. Habich, the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, says: He (Habich) had no care, and shared no responsibility in keeping the public money; never had a key to the vault or received or paid out a dollar from the Treasury while acting as clerk during Janssen's last term." Now, gents, this is simply a very silly lie, and the Argus man knows it to be such, for Mr. Habich had frequently, during Mr. Seaver's absence at land sales and pleasure excursions (Mr. Janssen was hardly ever at his post) for weeks at a time, the keys to the vault, and paid out and received funds, which is a well known fact to every inhabitant of this place, and the fluttering of the Argus only shows that you have touched a sore spot. You may make such use of this statement as you think proper.

Respectfully yours,

OPENING THE CAMPAIGN.—An anonymous correspondent of the News, writing from Waukesha under date of the 5th instant, thus refers to our Republican candidate for Governor, Judge RANDALL:

You speak of him as a resident of your city. His family resides here, and he is to be found in our saloons playing cards the most of the time. If he spends any of his leisure hours in your city, he is not missed here.

This style of attack is characteristic of the Barstow organs. But Judge RANDALL cannot be harmed by such palpable and malicious fabrications. The People know him, as the Barstowites will find to their cost.

Wisconsin State Directory.

We are requested to state that the compilers of the above work, Messrs. SMITH, DE MORLIN & Co., have completed the canvass of the State, and are now engaged in preparing the same for the printers. They have opened an office in Excelsior Block, Room No. 8, 134 East Water St., and take this opportunity to inform the business community and citizens generally, that all desirous of having their business cards inserted, can do so by applying as above.

ESTERLY'S REAPERS.—The Whitewater Register publishes certificates concerning the late trial of Esterly's Reaper, when it cut 16 acres in one afternoon. The certificates are to the effect that the grain was "very heavy and badly crinkled down, the ground not rolled"—that the work was done in the very best manner, and the team was not worried; the off horse at sunset had not sweat any, the nigh one working inside, next the grain, sweat a little under the harness—that the amount cut was 16¼ acres, as measured—that the bundles were so well laid that the binders could do their work "one third faster" than with other machines—and that the rate of work, while in motion, was 2 acres and 15 rods per hour.

TROOPS FOR UTAH, OR KANSAS.—The Pittsburg Post, of the 29th, says: Two hundred and sixteen United States Mounted Riflemen from Carlisle Barracks, arrived in this city on Thursday night by the Pennsylvania Railroad. They are destined for New Mexico, and took the cars yesterday morning for St. Louis, via the Pittsburg, Cleveland and Cincinnati Railroad. They went by way of Steubenville, accompanied by T. Scott Stewart, agent of the P. C. and C. R. R., who will leave them at St. Louis. They were under the command of Major Carleton, Captain Duncan, and Lieutenants Neville and Jackson.

FAILURE IN TROY.—John W. Bates, broker of Troy, stopped payment on Monday. The cause of his embarrassment is said to be an advance of some $80,000, to the "World's Safe Co." He is of the firm of Bates & Griffin, but this suspension will not, it is said, affect that firm. His assets are far above his liabilities, and it is expected that he will soon resume.

ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH STOCK.—At London, on the 18th of August, the £1,000 shares of the Atlantic telegraph were offering at £250 discount. The day before the accident they were only slightly below par.

HEAVY JUDGMENTS.—The Buffalo Courier is informed that, within the last fourteen days, judgments to the amount of over $413,000 have been entered up against the Buffalo Car Company.

SARATOGA.—The arrivals at Saratoga for seventy-four days of the present season foot up 17,136. Last year the arrivals for seventy-five days numbered 14,605.

THE DETROIT BANKS.—The Detroit Free Press thus corrects a report which had been quite current hereabouts and which found its way into the Sentinel, that the Peninsular Bank, of Detroit, had failed:

We assure the Sentinel that the Peninsular Bank has not failed, and the Sentinel may assure its readers that it stands in no danger of failing. It deservedly has the unbounded public confidence.

We take occasion to repeat, that which we stated the other day, the belief that there need be no apprehension concerning the soundness of either the banks or prominent private bankers of this city. None of them had connection with any of the concerns which have failed in New York, and none of them have been considerably called upon by their depositors in consequence of the existing state of things.

The State Convention

Which closed its labors on Thursday evening, was the largest political delegate meeting ever held in this state, and for intelligence and responsibility of character, has never been surpassed, if equalled. It represented all shades of opinions in the Republican party, and though the friends of each candidate strove earnestly for the success of their candidates, the most perfect good feeling was maintained throughout.—At the close of the first day's balloting—Gov. Bashford and Mr. Harvey having both been withdrawn before the voting commenced—it was evident that neither Mr. Holton nor Mr. McIndoe had a majority of the convention, and that some other candidate must be selected to secure a harmonious result. Mr. Holton was the first choice of a larger number of delegates than any other candidate, could command. Mr. McIndoe could not get above 96, even as the third choice. Mr. Randall was the second choice of a majority, and was nominated. After the nomination of Governor, the remaining work was not difficult. The main object of the convention was to make as strong a ticket as possible—to select men well qualified for the offices they are designated to fill, having regard to localities and the fitness of things. We are personally acquainted with all the candidates, and we believe them all competent to discharge the duties of their respective offices with credit to themselves, the Republican party and the State. That they will be triumphantly elected, if the Republicans give them a united and vigorous support, there can be no manner of doubt.—Free Democrat.

Scrupulously Honest.

The Barstow Democracy are eager to inform the people, that the candidate for Governor is scrupulously honest. The Milwaukee News, in a short eulogy on Cross, takes occasion to state twice, that he is honest—very honest. The Barstow politicians actually chuckle with glee over the fact that they have dug out of the filth and corruption and dishonor of their party, a man whom they can say is honest. But mark the Milwaukee News. In the same article in which it eulogizes the honesty of Mr. Cross it says, in case he should be elected, "the will of the democracy would be his will." What has been the will of the Democracy when in power? They willed to rob the State Treasury, they willed to plunder our School Fund, they willed to stuff our ballot boxes, and forge election returns, they willed to keep Barstow in the Gubernatorial chair by unheard of fraud, and would have succeeded had not Republicans willed that they should not. Such has been the will of the Democracy. Have we any pledge for the future?—Oshkosh Democrat.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that a German employed in the Steam Mill of Messrs. B. Jones & Co., was struck by the pitman on Monday last, fracturing his skull and injuring him so severely that he died the same evening.

He had just arrived from Germany and leaves a family.—Manitowoc Tribune.

Freights at McGregor for August—Business of the Mil. & Miss. R. R.

The following paragraph from the McGregor (Iowa) Times, shows not only the very large business done at that place in the way of transhipment of freights to the interior of Iowa, but tells well for the current business, and more for the future prospects of the Mil & Miss. R. R., which terminates at Prairie du Chien, opposite McGregor:

FREIGHTS FOR AUGUST.

A careful examination of the warehouse books of Messrs. Kirkpatrick & Weeks at McGregor, furnishes us the following facts: From the 1st to 31st of August exclusive, there were 47 arrivals of up-river boats discharging freight at this point, the number of pounds delivered, 455,682, exclusive of bulk freight not easily ascertained.—By the M. & M. R. R. and Steam Ferry, the amount delivered and reported at the ware house is 254,000 pounds, but we learn that this does not give a just idea of the extent to which the Milwaukee Road is reaching on the Iowa side; numbers of teamsters prefer to go across the river to load, and that freight of course is not reported to the wharf clerk at all. The full amount of tonnage by the Railroad for the month we believe would exceed 450,000 pounds. When the world of wealth in Northern Iowa is turned up by the plow (and that work is going on with magic industry) the Milwaukee and Mississippi will find a grain feeder in the McGregor Road that is now past conception. The great line of Railway from Storm City on the Missouri, McGREGOR, and thence via Prairie du Chien to MILWAUKEE, will be the best paying road in the world—this statement we most firmly believe, and no man who has passed over the Iowa portion of the route can get away from a full, earnest and enthusiastic conviction of its truth.

Yearning for "Broad Acres."

John Mitchell wanted, and got, a Southern plantation. Mr. Robinson, of the Green Bay Advocate, after traveling between Horicon and Berlin, wants a farm somewhere about in that region. His aspirations are fervent and entirely orthodox, even as to his boys voting the Democratic ticket, for in that future time, there will be no such thing as the bogus Democracy which makes us so much trouble now-a-days. Here is what the editor says:

The country along the Horicon, Ripon and Berlin Railroad is a sight to see. We never saw a more continuous grain field in our life. Upon a thousand hills and in a thousand valleys stand wheat sheaves almost as the sands of the sea.—We sat at the car door as the train drove for a full hour through the golden field, and thought we had never seen a finer sight. The land seemed fairly to laugh and grow fat. Its broad belly swelled out, and we could almost hear the words of the text—"And I am full!" Great fellows, those farmers up there—princes, and lords, and noblemen; they did'nt mind the going along of the railroad train, but stood upon their great stacks as we passed them, looking with indifference upon that black and sweating locomotive which depended for its living upon the shillings and sixpences of such chaps as us, and the carrying to market of such grain as they do not want themselves. Those mowing contrivances, with two and three and four horses, marched through the waving fields, gathering in more wealth in an hour than we sore-footed and sorry-hearted town folk could get together in a month; and then the sun shone upon, and the west breeze fanned the faces of us happy, as honest, as independent men as you can find in a year's pilgrimage. Ooh hone for the country! We have been spoken to encouragingly about certain very fine public positions, but we don't want any of them. We want some broad acres up there on that prairie; we want one of those marvelous reapers, and some fat horses to draw it; and some cattle to range the hills; and sturdy health, which receives alike gratefully the glowing sunshine, the warm, sweet rain, or the dew of the morning; we want an old-fashioned farm house, with a broad porch, where we can sit with the good wife and the household treasures when the day's work is done, and drink with our friends home-brewed ale, if you like. It—or if not, then the sweet spring water which shall ripple down the creek just by, and slug us always a purling and mellow song of contentment. And the lovers shall come and see our daughters, they shall find them at the spinning wheel or in the dairy with their happy and modest looks, instead of in the parlor, puffed out with unseemly skirts and looking forward to getting married as the aim of life. And our boys shall go to town in homespun clothes, driving those fine teams and carrying those great loads of wheat. And they shall go to the polls and cast their regular, honest Democratic tickets, and come home sober. And when they get married, we will run a new fence across the old farm, and they shall be with us in our old age.

A Rumor Contradicted.

A rumor recently found its way into the Mirror, to the effect that a young lady of this city, the daughter of a late eminent churchman, had married an actor of celebrity in this city. We gave it as an on dit of the hour, without any knowledge of the parties. The rumor having traveled in a direction which gave it application and individuality, we have learned with great satisfaction that rumor was on this occasion besmirching a falsehood. The young lady has no relations, even of acquaintanceship, with the party intimated, is not married, and has not left the city—three facts which are pretty conclusive as to the character of the report itself.—N. Y. Mirror.

That story is exploded as effectually as Cuvier is said to have once corrected the French Academy's definition of a crab. They called it a "small red fish, that walks backwards." He complimented the Academy on the result of their labors, but said that the crab was not red, was not a fish, and did not walk backwards.

Work with a Reaper.

RIPON, Sept. 4, 1857.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Having noticed a statement in your last paper of Sept. 2d, in regard to Mr. George Esterly's reaper—" his reaping sixteen acres in one afternoon, with one pair of horses—the quickest on record, &c." In reply to this statement, I will say that I have cut more than he did, or can cut. On the farm of Mr. R. Carter, at Lake Maria, Marquette County, I cut four acres with one team, and went out of the field in one hour and six minutes. It took the six minutes to get out of the field. If this is not the quickest work on record, I would say to Mr. Esterly, or any other man's reaper, that I can cut more grain than any other reaper in the State, and do it too with one span of horses. If any man doubts it, he can have a chance of testing the truth of my assertion by a "reaper trial."

If there is any other reaper that can cut more than four acres in one hour, I would be glad to know it.

Yours,
S. CARTER.

CARPET BAG FOUND.—Our citizens doubtless remember that some time last Spring, D. E. Jackson lost his carpet bag, or rather it was taken from the "American" at Milwaukee, where he was stopping, containing seventeen thousand dollars in cash and bonds. A few days since Mr. J. learned that an old Quaker, somewhere in Ohio had it safe waiting for some one to claim it, and at last he has succeeded in recovering it all right.—Horicon Argus.

STATE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—We have every reason to suppose that this important State edifice will probably be built as speedily as could be wished. Mr. Nelson McNeil, of Portage, to whom the contract is let, will have the excavation commenced immediately, though the terms of the contract do not require the work to be commenced until the 15th of the month. Mr. McNeil is possessed of energy and go-ahead-ativeness.—Madison Argus.

FIRE.—Last Sunday afternoon a stack of hay between Lake street and the lumber yard was discovered to be on fire. It was fortunately extinguished before entirely consumed, or before further damage was done to adjacent property. A son of the owner kindled the fire for the fun of the thing, just to see it burn.—Horicon Argus.

A WEDDING PRESENT.—We have been shown a jewel box, of solid gold, eighteen carats fine, weighing six hundred and fifty pennyweights, and costing nearly one thousand dollars. It is intended for a wedding present to a lady in Turkey, by a merchant of this city. It is the largest and most costly thing of the kind ever made in this country.—Boston Trav.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

THE BRITISH CROWN.—The members of the London and Middlesex Archæological Society recently availed themselves of the permission granted by Field Marshal the Right Hon. Viscount Combermere, G. C. B., and Major Gen. the Right Hon. Lord De Ros the Governor and Lieut. Governor of the Tower of London, to hold a meeting in that ancient fortress. The reports of the visit in the London papers are quite interesting. When the party came upon the new Jewel office, at the north-east corner of the Tower, where the Regalia is deposited, Mr. Tennant, the eminent mineralogist, and Mr. Garrard, the Queen's jeweller, were in waiting to explain the various points of interest connected with the Crown jewels. We copy the following detailed description of the crown now worn by Queen Victoria:

It was made by Messrs. Rundell and Bridge, in 1838, with jewels taken from old crowns and others furnished by command of her Majesty. It consists of diamonds, pearls, rubies, sapphires and emeralds, set in silver and gold, has a crimson velvet cap with ermine border, and lined with white silk. Its gross weight Troy is 39 ounces, 5 pennyweights. According to Mr. Garrard, the list of the jewels is contained in the crown, with the weights of the principal ones, is as follows:

| 1 Very large uncut Ruby | 170 |
| 1 Large oval spread Sapphire | 104 |
| 16 Large Sapphires | 171 |
| 11 Emerald | 55 |
| 4 Rubies | 6 |
| 1305 Brilliants | |
| 1273 Rose Diamonds | |
| 147 Table Diamonds | |
| 1 Drop Shape Pearls | |
| 241 Pearls | 226 |
| 32 Pearls in Annulet | 32 |

Total number of jewels in the Crown, 3093. To ascertain the exact value of these gems would require an examination so much closer than is possible under the circumstances, that nothing reliable can be stated on that head. The most remarkable jewel in the crown is the great ruby, of which Mr. Garrard gives the following account: In the front of the crown and in the centre of a diamond Maltese Cross, is the famous ruby, said to have been given to Edward Prince of Wales, son of Edward III., and called the Black Prince, after the battle of Najera, near Vittoria, A. D. 1367. This ruby was worn in the helmet of Henry V. at the battle of Agincourt. It is pierced quite through, after the Eastern custom.

The company were surprised to find only a glass model of the famous Koh-i-noor among the Regalia in the Tower. The report has this curious statement respecting that noted diamond:

Whatever may have been the intentions of the East India Company when they presented the Koh-i-noor to the Sovereign of these realms, that royal gem is now held to be the private property of the Queen; and, as it will pass with her personal estate, it is clear that, if ever the nation wishes to see this trophy of British valor form part of the British Regalia, it will have to purchase it at its market value.—Boston Transcript.

A GOOD JOKE.—We had a painful trial of our patience to-day. An individual with a show of friendship approached us at a time at a time when suspicion was asleep, and in a tone that would "wheedle the devil," asked what difference there was between the new cent and the old fashioned quarter. We looked in his eye but saw no expression beyond a mere inquiry for information, and after giving the subject suitable reflection, replied—"Don't know." "Don't know!" said he, "why there's twenty-four cents difference, isn't there?" It seemed very evident he was right.—Boston Gazette.

MATRIMONY AND DRY GOODS.—The Ocean Advertiser notices editorially that "Mr. N. S. Butler, one of our most enterprising merchants, and Miss Libbie A. Wade, were united in the bonds of matrimony, at the First Presbyterian Church in this village, on Tuesday morning last. The happy couple started the same day for New York, where the bridegroom intends purchasing a larger stock of goods than ever for cash."
